BENTON NIGHT RIDER TRIALS

First Night Rider Cases Resulted In A Hung Jury.

SAM COLLIE CLEARED.

More Than 80 Men Are Under Indictment Awaiting Trials.

Benton, Ky., June 20.—The jury in the Burnett Phelps case was dismissed this afternoon at 2 o'clock, after having been held together for twenty-six hours. They reported that it was impossible to agree. It was ascertained that the jury was evenly divided, six being for conviction and six for acquittal.

Burnett Phelps is charged with participating in the raid on Birmingham, in March, when John Scruggs, an old negro, was killed, and his infant grandchild was so badly shot it died the next day. Several negroes were whipped.

The defense relied on alibi evidence to acquit their client. Both sides made out a strong case. Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Lovett made a strong speech, denouncing such lawlessness as night riding in strong terms. He pleaded with the jury to do its duty and send Phelps to the penitentiary. Attorneys C. K. Wheeler and W. A. Berry, of Paducah, also put up strong arguments for their client, Attorney Wheeler's speech being flowery. William Reeder also spoke for the commonwealth and Attorney Jack Fisher for the defendant.

The Phelps case was the first tried in Marshall county and it is considered a victory for the defense. The commonwealth's attorney is hopeful though of convicting some of the men indicted, and he has a large number to work on.

While Attorney Berry was speaking he made a remark that was approved by a large number of the audience applauding. The commonwealth's attorney was quick to arise and asked the court, "Judge I wish you would stop these night riders from applauding the speaker." There were some murmurs of disapproval at the request, but Judge Reed promptly informed the audience that a repetition would mean jail sentences for the guilty.

The case of Sam Collie, charged with the same offense, was finished at five o'clock this afternoon and given to the jury. The evidence in this case was practically the same as in the Phelps case, Otis Blick being the most important witness. Collie's defense is about the same as in the other case, both defendants presenting strong alibis. A verdict of not guilty was returned.

RENSHAW IS NOW SHERIFF

Another Decision By Court Of Appeals Destroys Last Hope.

SMITH LOSES HIS OFFICE

Original Case Will Be Heard By Judge Cook Tomorrow.

The Court of Appeals Saturday handed down a decision in the Smith-Renshaw case that in effect removes all doubts and declares John M. Renshaw Sheriff, by the "operation of the Statutes." The original case was to come up yesterday before Judge Cook on its merits, but was passed until tomorrow for the examination of the opinion of 28 typewritten pages. The opinion is concurred in by O'Rear, Barker, Lassing and Carroll, Nunn, Settle and Hobson dissent. It passes upon almost every possible phase of the case and declares that a vacancy existed and that Judge Prowse filled it in a lawful manner. If Judge Cook should hold David Smith Sheriff still, the appeal would go before Judge Barker again and his decision in twenty days would of course reaffirm the opinion in the writ of prohibition and injunction cases. No matter what further steps are taken, it is not possible for Mr. Smith to hold on to the office. The original case might be appealed, but Renshaw would be Sheriff in the interim. In any event, the decision makes an election necessary and the Democrats are already expressing a determination to nominate candidates for both Sheriff and County Judge to be voted for in November. If Mr. Smith cannot run for Sheriff, he may be a candidate for County Judge. If Judge Cook decides to accept the last decision on settling the entire controversy, he will probably dismiss the case in Circuit Court and give the office to Renshaw at once and a hot campaign would at once open up.

TAFT NAMED ON FIRST BALLOT

On Thursday the Culmination of Great Convention Came in Naming Secretary of War For President.

Congressman James S. Sherman Was Named For Second Place After Brief Session on Friday.

Incidents of One of the Most Interesting Conventions in the History of the Party.

For President of the United States, WILLIAM H. TAFT of Ohio.

For Vice President—JAMES S. SHERMAN of New York.

Taft on the first ballot; Taft by 702 votes; Taft by the unanimous choice of the convention.

Such is the record of the culminating day of the Republican national convention of 1908, effected amid scenes of tumultuous enthusiasm and after a nerve-racking continuous session lasting nearly eight hours.

A hush of expectancy hung over the assembly as the call proceeded. Hasty summaries showed that Taft was far in advance. When New York was reached the Taft column tallied 427.

Ohio carried the Taft total to 551, or twenty more than enough to nominate. Still the call went on until the final result was announced by Chairman Lodge.

For Theodore Roosevelt, 3 votes; for Joseph B. Foraker of Ohio, 16 votes; for Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana, 40 votes; for Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois, 51 votes; for Robert La Follette of Wisconsin, 25 votes; for Charles E. Hughes of New York, 63 votes; for Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania, 65 votes; and for William H. Taft of Ohio, 702 votes.

Following is the vote for the unsuccessful candidates:

Cannon—Illinois, 51; Michigan, 31; New Jersey, 3; New York, 3. Total, 58.

Fairbanks—Georgia, 1; Indiana, 39; Kentucky, 2; New Hampshire, 3; New Jersey, 2; South Carolina, 2; Total, 40.

Hughes—New York, 65; Virginia, 2. Total, 67.

Foraker—Georgia, 8; Ohio, 4; South Carolina, 2; Virginia, 1; District of Columbia, 1. Total, 16.

Knox—New Jersey, 4; Pennsylvania, 64. Total, 68.

La Follette—Wisconsin, 25.

Roosevelt—Pennsylvania, 3.

A great shout went up as Lodge concluded his announcement, and with one accord the cohorts of Cannon and Knox and Hughes and the others joined in a common tribute for the candidate of the party.

With Congressman James S. Sherman, of New York, chosen as vice-presidential candidate and running mate of Secretary Taft, the Republican national convention passed into history Friday.

The Formal Opening.

The Republican national quadrennial convention was called to order at noon Tuesday, Harry B. New of Indiana, chairman of the Republican national committee, wielding the gavel would a scene of party splendor rarely, if ever, equalled. The vast auditorium of the Chicago Coliseum had been decorated as never before for the occasion, and its seating arrangements, systematized to the last square inch, were hardly adequate for the throng which filled the great structure, every man and every woman on the lip of anticipation.

Chairman New's attitude in calling the convention to order was business personified. Captain New never attempts oratory, and his terse, crisp sentences announcing the object of the convention created an excellent impression. Bishop P. J. Muldoon of Chicago was thus introduced and in eloquence in all the deliberations of the body thus assembled.

Following the formal presentation of the gavel to the chairman, the call for the convention was read by Elmer Dever of Ohio, secretary of the Republican national committee, and Senator Burrows of Michigan, temporary chairman, was introduced. The venerable senator, his shaggy beard much whiter than when he last attended a national convention, but with no diminution of vigor in person or voice, addressed his great audience on the record of the party during the four years since the last convention, concluding as follows: "The work of this convention will soon be concluded. The platform will vote the dominant thought of the people, and the candidates nominated must stand upon it firm and erect. They must have the patriotism and sagacity of a Lincoln, the tenacity of a Grant, the wisdom and moderation of a McKinley. With such a platform and such candidates the issue cannot be in doubt. The Republican party confidently submits its record to the approving judgment of the American people and, upon its renewed declaration of faith, invokes continuance of public favor."

After the transaction of certain formal duties of miscellaneous business the convention then adjourned until Wednesday the various committees being instructed to meet at their several places to complete the details of permanent organization.

THE SECOND DAY

Speech of Permanent Chairman Lodge the Distinctive Feature.

The selection of Senator Henry C. Lodge as permanent chairman of the Republican national convention was formally approved at a meeting of the committee on permanent organization and it was agreed that all of the other temporary officers of the convention named on the floor Tuesday should be made permanent. Therefore when the convention assembled on Wednesday to hear the reports of the various committees, Senator Lodge was in the chair, prepared to direct the deliberations of the great quadrennial gathering to its close.

Incidental to the convening of the delegates an inspiring scene was presented when the many marching clubs, which have gathered here from various parts of the country for the purpose of cheering things up for the several candidates, paraded through the hall.

The marching clubs assembled on Michigan avenue, at the foot of Adams street, opposite the Art Institute, marched down Michigan avenue to entrance "H" of the convention hall, into the hall, up the aisle, and out at entrance "H" on Wabash avenue, each shouting with the other in efforts to create the most enthusiasm.

Probably the most important act of the day, and the one having greatest significance in the final result of the convention, was the adoption of the report of the committee on credentials, seating the Taft delegations practically in toto. If there had been any dissenting doubt of the Taft strength it disappeared before this decisive action, which in effect placed upward of 700 delegates in the Taft column.

Equally important, and even more remarkable, was the final acceptance of this result by the allies without the formality of a dissenting minority report, and without carrying the question to the floor of the convention for the open fight which had been long threatened. Instead of this all for their opposition seemed to crumble. Thereafter the convention was quickly accepted the inevitable.

After the convention had been called to order, the Rev. William O. Waters of Chicago delivered an earnest prayer for divine guidance in the affairs of the day. Senator Lodge, in accepting the chairmanship of the convention, made a brief speech thanking the delegates for the high honor they had conferred upon him, concluding with the following appeal to the nation's electorate:

"We ask for the confidence and support of the American people because we have met the problems of the day and have tried patiently to solve them. We appeal for votes and for the power they confer because we shall continue the president's policies and shall continue to sustain them. We make our appeal with confidence because we have a well-defined policy and are not like our opponents, fumbling in the dark to find some opinion on something."

"We believe in the maintenance of law and order and in the support of the courts in all their rights and dis-rights and are opposed to special privileges for any man, or any class of men, high or low, rich or poor. We, the established and gold standard, are pledged to the cause of sound finance. We stand for protection to American industry and American labor, and we will resist all the assaults which come under whatever name it comes disguised. We will see to the defense of the country. We mean to have a navy which will be a terror to the world's people. We seek peace and friendship with all the nations, not alliance with none. Yet we have no intention of being a 'hermit nation.' The peace of the world is the peace of the world's people. It will be continued by the party which he has led. We are a party fit to rule and govern, to legislate and administer, and not a fortuitous collection of atoms whose only form of thought or motion is to oppose. Above all, we are true to our traditions and to our past. True now, as we were in the days of Lincoln."

"In this spirit we must prevail—in this sign we must conquer."

THE THIRD DAY

Adoption of Platform and Nominations Hold the Boards.

The final details of the national platform having been arranged by the platform committee, the convention was equipped Thursday morning to make its declaration of policy and proceed to the selection of candidates. The session opened at 10 o'clock instead of at noon, as heretofore, so that a full day might be had for the discussion of principles and the election of delegates. The platform went before the convention early in the day and its adoption was followed by the speeches placing in nomination the candidates for president.

Several changes in phraseology were made in certain planks of the platform as presented to the committee. There were also some changes of an essential character in some of the more important declarations, so that the platform as adopted is in some particulars, though in no essentials, different from the draft of the document which was prepared in Washington.

The presentation of the report on permanent organization was the signal for Senator Burrows to yield his place as temporary chairman and to escort to the platform the permanent chairman of the convention, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts. Mr. Lodge, trim and businesslike, looked as if from a later generation than the white-haired retiring chairman. His voice, too, had that resonant New England twang which made it ring out to the farthest corners of the galleries, carrying merriment and sarcasm which started the listeners to attention and applause.

"The president," exclaimed Mr. Lodge, "is the best abashed and most popular man in the United States today."

This was the long-awaited signal. Instantly a shout broke from the galleries and the floor, and a storm of detached yells and cat-calls, and shouts of "Teddy," but gradually gathering force and volume, until it swelled to a whirlwind of sound and motion. Delegates and spectators rose en masse, mounting chairs, waving banners, hats, handkerchiefs, flags, newspapers, anything which could be seized upon to add to the tumult. Amid the tumult the band struck up, but the crash of the brass and drums was completely lost in the babel of sound, which welled from 14,000 throats.

Wonderful Demonstration.

For the first minute Senator Lodge stood waiting to proceed, occasionally raising his hand for silence, only to awaken a defiant yell twice louder than the first. For five minutes he waited, and then, instead of abating the uproar was increasing. The sergeant-at-arms moved up a chair for the presiding officer and Senator Lodge sank back to await a lull in the storm. "Bully Boy Bill" and "Short-weight Jim" are in for a sure enough race. With the negroes against one and union labor against the other, they are going to have to hustle to carry their own States.

Judge Gordon at Princeton holds insurance companies liable for night rider losses and Judge Sandidge at Russellville, holds them exempt. The cases now go to the court of appeals,
which has adjourned until September, whose decision will be awaited with interest.

The harmony business was carried to an extreme at Lexington and at least one fatal blunder was made which, if it is not corrected, will cost the electoral ticket many votes in this part of Kentucky. No man whose personality is calculated to drive off votes should have been put on the ticket.

John Sharp Williams has resigned
the House minority leadership and will go on the lecture platform until he enters the Senate in March 1911, with a lecture "Talk About Talk and Talkers." He will serve during the remainder of his present term in Congress, which expires
next March.

The military service in seven months has cost the State $45,000, but Gov. Willson's equalization board raised the tax assessments to bring in $200,000 new taxes. This increase falls mostly upon farm lands, which he claims have been enhanced in value by more lucrative prices for farm products. It will thus be seen that the farmers themselves are paying for the soldiers.

There is apprehension on the part of many Nashville people that the Tennessee Central road may fall into the hands of the Louisville and Nashville, and that the city will again be in the clutches of a railroad monopoly. Maj. E. B. Stahlman, in an interview in the Banner, predicts
instead of falling to exercise the option July 1, the Illinois Central and Southern railway will foreclose the road and bid it in cheaper, thus wiping out Nashville stock, and that they will continue to operate the road.

A hole three-quarters of a mile across and 600 feet deep has been discovered in Arizona and a government official who has been investigating concludes that it was made by the impact of a meteor in prehistoric times. Soundings made to the depth of 842 feet in the bottom of it indicate that it will be a good hole for Taft and Sherman to go into after the November election, if some arrangement can be made by which they can pull the hole in after them.

James Schoolcraft Sherman, Republican nominee for Vice-President,
is 53 years old and lives in Utica, N.
Y. He has been in Congress twenty years and is a trust lawyer of large fortune. He is President of the Utica Trust and Deposit Co. and of the Hartford Canning Co. and is also the head of an ice monopoly. Mr.
Sherman has figured in some unavoidable campaign matters. He was chairman of the committee that had to do with the campaign funds raised by Harriman for the Republican ticket and helped to defeat the campaign publicity bill. He is said to be a henchman of Mayor Tom Wheeler,
the Utica boss, and has persistently sought lucrative offices. He sided with the packers when Congress got after them and forced them to give a pound for a pound. He was called "Short-weight Jim." He has picked up $2,000,000 during his political career in one way or another. Mr.
Sherman has three grown sons. He an active member of the Dutch Reformed church.

ing, returned a verdict of not guilty

ONE ON INNES.

Enjoys an Occasional Joke on Himself.

One of the characteristics that makes Mr. Innes so admired and enjoyed by all who meet him, is his keen sense of humor. He is full of originality and while always ready to have a joke on some member of his big company, he no less enjoys an occasional one of himself. He tells of once giving a summer concert in New Jersey. He appeared on the stage, bowed his acknowledgment to the applause of the audience and, taking up his baton, gave the first program number, which happened to be the Prelude by Liszt.
This selection never fails to create a great burst of enthusiasm, so he was not surprised at its completion to hear the expected applause. After bowing several times he responded with an encore. This number too seemed to meet with the same continued applause and after a few moments he responded with a second encore. Innes and his musicians like all public performers are inspired to their best efforts, by a responsive audience but after playing a third, fourth, fifth and even sixth encore, Innes began to wonder if the concert would not develop into an all night affair. The musicians being by this time breathless and thinking to quiet his audience Innes walked off the stage, but still it continued; not from one section of the house, but from every nook and corner. On reaching the wings he remarked to a stage hand: "That audience is the limit. Never before have I heard such persistent applause." "What do you mean?"
asked the man, who happened to be Irishman. "Why," said Innes, "the hand clapping." "That? that ain't hand clapping," replied the Irishman,
"that's the audience killing mosquitos."

Innes at once went back to resume his concert, but for the next encore he played the Mosquito Parade, at which the Irishman gave him a knowing and merry wink from the wings.

ROAD TO REVERT TO OLD OWNERS

Financial Circles of New York Are So Informed By I. C. and Southern.

TENNESSEE CENTRAL.

Both Decide Not to Exercise July 1 Options.—Proved a Costly Experiment.

New York, June 22.—The Illinois Central, it is learned has decided not to exercise its July 1 option on a controlling interest in the Tennessee Central, and on that date it will give up the operation of this line, over which the Illinois Central reaches Nashville, The Southern Railway which, along the Illinois Central, has an interest in this option, will not exercise its rights, as was made known some time ago, so that on July 1 control of the Tennessee Central Railway will revert to the former owners.

This means the abandonment by the Illinois Central of a line under its own control into Nashville. It was said today that the line to Nashville had been operated at a loss, and therefore its abandonment would be profitable to the Illinois Central, rather than otherwise.

The option on the Tennessee was taken by the Illinois Central and the Southern Railway three years ago. The Southern had a two-thirds interest in this option, and the Illinois Central one-third. Part of the transaction was the purchase of $4,000,000 prior lien bonds of the Tennessee Central, of which two-thirds were paid for by the Southern and the other third by the Illinois Central. The two roads continue to hold these bonds, but control of Tennessee Central will rest after July 1, with the old owners, who are chiefly St. Louis people.

It is understood that the control of the securities upon which the Southern and the Illinois Central hold the option is vested in a syndicate which was to have expired on July 1. The officials of the roads said yesterday that they had no information regarding the affairs of this syndicate. The securities controlled by this syndicate include, it is understood, the $8,000,000 of the road's capital stock and $8,000,000 of general mortgage bonds. What the exact purchase price fixed in the option is could not be learned.

In the negotiations between these two roads which resulted in the purchase of the prior lien bonds and the granting of an option for control of the road, the owners of the Tennessee Central were represented by United States Senator Bailey, of Texas. The reason for the decision of the Illinois Central and the Southern not to exercise the option is that the option price agreed upon three years ago is no longer regarded as favorable, in view of changed conditions which now prevail.

The Tennessee Central is 200 miles long, including branches, which run east from Nashville to Harriman, Tenn., where it connects with the Southern Railway at a distance of 165, and west to a connection with the Illinois Central, a distance of about 85 miles. The line afforded both these systems a direct entrance to Nashville. The western division has been operated by the Illinois Central and the eastern division by the Southern Railway since December, 1905.

Opening Ball at Cerulean Will Be Given.

The opening ball at Cerulean Springs will be given on the night of Wednesday, June 24. There were no tickets issued, but the public is invited. An usual large crowd of young people from this city will attend.

Salubria Springs Opening.

The opening dinner at Salubria Springs Hotel Saturday night gave the new hotel a splendid start. There were about 200 guests registered, 60 or 70 of them from Hopkinsville. There was music by the band and a good time generally. Everybody was delighted with the new hotel and the surroundings, as well as pleased with the excellent mineral water. Salubria will continue to be a popular resort during the summer.

Points About People.

MEDLEY—
Dr. G. E. Medley will leave this week to resume the practice of dentistry in Cadiz, where he practiced until a year or two ago. He will form a partnership with Dr. Cunningham. Dr. and Mrs. Medley will be missed by a large circle of friends in this city. They are now occupying Mrs. Hale's cottage on South Main street and during their residence in this city have been prominent in social circles.

DENNIS—
Dr. J. M. Dennis, for more than thirty years a practicing physician of this city, is arranging to move to the country in the near future. He will locate on the Tandy place near Beverly. Dr. Dennis was a surgeon under Stonewall Jackson and his practice covers more than forty-five years. Of late his health has been impaired and he goes to the country to rest up and regain his strength.

UNDERWOOD—
The following sketch of Tom Underwood is from the Louisville Times, and all that is said is deserved:

"One of the brightest newspaper men in Kentucky—or the South, for that matter—is Tom Underwood, the newly elected vice president of the association. No other was mentioned in connection with the nomination for that office, and when Charles M. Meacham, of Hopkinsville, a contemporary of Mr. Underwood, placed his name before the convention there was a demonstration seldom seen outside of a political convention.

What is conceded to be one of the best papers read at the convention was prepared and read by Mr. Underwood. It was entitled "What is the Matter With Kentucky?" and the manner in which Mr. Underwood handled the subject brought forth praise from such veterans of the press as Col. Polk Johnson, Robert W. Brown, Green Keller and Lew B. Brown. It was a highly creditable paper and was much enjoyed by all who heard it.

Mr. Underwood is the editor of the Hopkinsville New Era. He has been in the newspaper business fourteen years on Hopkinsville papers and at one time served as managing editor of the Henderson Journal. He is now the editor of the New Era and is associated with Walker Wood. As chairman of the Executive Committee Mr. Underwood had charge of the arrangements for the meeting at Cerulean Springs, which was one of the most successful in the history of the organization. The vice presidency is a stepping stone to higher honors, and Mr. Underwood will become president of the association one year hence."

WILGUS—
Says the Louisville Times: "The men all call him Bill, but the ladies more melodiously call him Willie. His full name is William Algon Wilgus, and he knows enough people in Kentucky to be easily elected Governor. The best part is that everybody that knows him likes him, and this is particularly true of the softer sex."

Mr. Wilgus gets his mail at Hopkinsville, and he is one of those mainly responsible for the selection of Cerulean Springs as the recent meeting place of the K. P. A. Both at Cerulean and at Hopkinsville everybody seemed to be a member on the Committee on Reception, and everybody recognized that Will Wilgus was chairman of the committee and chief of entertainers, although there was nothing printed anywhere on the official handbills to proclaim this fact, owing to the excessive timidity and violet-like, shrinking modesty on the part of Mr. Wilgus, who blushes a royal flush every time he sees his name in print. At the annual banquet he did not serve as toastmaster, but he supervised every preparation, even to the making of the Mayonnaise, at which he is facile princeps. The ladies and gentlemen of the Kentucky Press Association will evermore cherish Bill in aromatic memory."

GARY—
One of the busiest men in the city during the Press reception was Geo. E. Gary, secretary of the Forbes Manufacturing Company. He was in active charge of the preparations for the big "blow out" at the Mogul factory and saw to it that each editor received every attention, including a souvenir cane made of Mogul hickory. George is a whole team when he spreads himself.

JOHN WILLIAMS

John Williams, of this city, was killed in Henderson Thursday night by an L. & N. train, near the union station. His right leg was mashed off and the toes of his left foot were also severed. Officer Hicks found him about 10 o'clock lying on a pile of screenings near the L. H. & St. L. tracks. An L. & N. train had gone out a few minutes before, and it is not known what train hit him. The negro said he worked at the ice factory and was from Hopkinsville. He was taken to the city hospital and died early Friday morning. His wife, Neely Williams, lives in this city on First street. They were married last fall. The widow called up officers at Henderson Sunday who told her the body had been buried there Saturday. Williams worked for John Young up to the time he left here.

SUDDEN DEATH

Of John Ed Buchanan in Evansville.

Mr. John Ed. Buchanan died in a sanitarium in Evansville Sunday night, where he had gone three days before, for a kidney trouble from which he had long suffered. He was born 52 years ago in Campbellville, Ky. He came to this city in 1893 and of late years has been associated with Jno. T. Edmunds in the insurance business. The funeral will take place at the home of his brother-in-law, W. H. Everett, at four o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Buchanan was unmarried. He leaves two sisters.

IS HE MARRIED?
